

Model N Express for Midmarket MedTech

Model N Express implementation methodology enables mid-size medtech companies to maximize revenues and reduce compliance risk with a comprehensive out-of-the-box revenue management cloud solution. Model N has packaged 14 years of experience working with the largest brands in life sciences — including J&J, Stryker, Boston Scientific, and Abbott — into a preconfigured enterprise-grade SaaS offering and an innovative implementation methodology.

With Model N Express, you can rapidly deploy Model N's Revenue Management Cloud solution with a templated and configurable SaaS platform that allows your team to manage and create workflows, rules, user permissions and reports without assistance. You can leverage pre-configured analytics and reporting embedded into a comprehensive, integrated cloud solution to optimize your revenue management strategy and decisions.

With Model N Express you can:

Maximize Revenues with best-in-class Revenue Management

- Maximize revenue and growth with increased visibility, insight, and control
- Ensure financial and contract compliance more effectively and efficiently

Accelerate time-to-value by leveraging industry best practices

- Pre-configured contract, pricing and rebate strategies and analytics
- Rapid deployment with standard validations, workflows and procedures

Low total cost of ownership with cloud SaaS subscription fee

- Self-sufficient with packaged, industry specific training. No additional IT needed
- One subscription fee – license, on-boarding, training, support, and upgrades

According to a study by KPMG, 32% of midmarket executives report that their most significant barrier to growth is pricing pressures. Emerging and midmarket medtech companies need to efficiently and effectively manage pricing, compliance and rebates to maximize business value.

30% of lifesciences companies have no visibility into their revenue erosion, costing them millions.

1% improvement in price translates into 11% increase in operating profit – McKinsey

48% of midsized companies reduced their overall IT expenses by deploying a Cloud Solution – Aberdeen Group
